Harassment of female train passengers

1425. SHRI P.PRABHAKARREDDY:
SHRTMATIVANGA GEETHA:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Human Rights Commission has issued extensive direction to the Ministry of Railways to ensure protection of female passengers in trains, against sexual harassment;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the said directives have been implemented;

(d) whether the Commission has also asked for a report on the issue from the Railway Board; and

(e) if so, whether tne said report has since been sent to the Commission; if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI O. RAJAGOPAL): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The details are given below:—

(I) Although, it was pointed out by the representatives of the Ministry of Railways that instructions have already been issued vide the office of Railway Board, Ministry of Railways letter No. 91 /TG-II / 1004 / 17 dated 10.9.97 regarding the process of filing FIRs in running trains and display of information about it, however, it was reiterated that there are still complaints that the FIR forms are not available and that it should be ensured that the forms are easily available and the public is provided complete information about the procedure to be followed.

(II) The Railway Board should come up with appropriate notices at strategic points in all railway stations / coaches mentioning thereby that sexual assault, obscene remarks, stares, gestures, songs and unwanted attention were all forms of sexual harassment and were therefore offences punishable by law under the Indian Penel Code and the Railways Act. It was further suggested that the contents of the above notice could also be put on the close circuit TV at all the railway platforms.

(III) The Railway should also disseminate information at all railway stations as well as within the trains as to whom the women passengers snould approach to lodge their complaints.

(IV) Trains and routes on which maximum complaints were registered should be given priority with regard to implementation of steps mentioned above.

(V) The different functionaries attached to various trains ought to be sensitized to issues relating to women. The Railway Board may organise Gender Sensitization Programmes for which they could seek the help of the NGO, Jagori and other women's groups involved in issue and that they may be incorporated into the regular training programmes conducted by the Ministry of Railways for their functionaries from time to time.

(VI) The Railway Ministry may from State level co-ordination committees with representatives of RPF and GRP in order to periodically review the progress of implementation of the measures taken for the safety of women passengers.

(c) Action is being taken to implement the suggestions.

(d) Yes, Sir.

(e) No, Sir. Action taken report is under process.
